COMPANY NAME: Edit Design Consultancy

COMPANY ADDRESS: 24 Greville Street, London, EC1N 8SS

WEBSITE: <https://www.editdc.co.uk/>

ABOUT: An independent, UK-based interior design consultancy with a strong reputation for delivering eye-catching design schedules. Edit provides its clients with logical design solutions that genuinely address the brief and budget. Although form is a priority, function is king, and Edit's clients enjoy the long-term benefits of this ethos.

MISSION STATEMENT: Edit is determined – on behalf of its clients – to find the balance between design and cost.

COMPANY HISTORY: Launched in the Summer of 2009, Edit Design Consultancy is the company persona for independent designer Paul Beardmore. The business has expanded steadily ever since, driven by Paul's talent, creativity, and focus on design practicality. Prior to starting the business, the variety of organisations and roles Paul's career encompassed organically pre-empted the three pillars of what Edit offers today:

1) ideas communicated clearly, 2) a healthy obsession for detail, and 3) commercial awareness.

EDIT'S SERVICES: Edit works with the client team to develop the brief and gauge an appropriate response, in terms of both aesthetic and practical considerations.
